Gooooood morning! ☀️
This clip of this little man singing gave me an idea...
Around Hanukkah/Christmas time [REDACTED] leading a kids "choir" at church, this chorus mixed with another simple chorus, some scripture readings done by the kids...a little "special" featuring out Bride kiddos. Wheels turning...what do you think?

Hey hey friends, good morning! I am just kind of waking up and remembering a very brief portion of a dream that I had with [REDACTED] in it... Wanted to share. Christian, [REDACTED], and I were walking with [REDACTED] passed a swimming pool. I picked her up to hold her and she dropped a toy that was kind of like a ball. It rolled toward the pool and we tried to catch it, but it fell into the pool and we couldn't get it out. She was a little bit upset. Anyway, we continued walking and she wanted to walk by herself. But when she got down, she stumbled and fell sideways into a gate. But she fell against the door of the gate and did not get hurt. We looked down at her, and we were so grateful that the gate was closed and not open so that she didn't fall further or get hurt. I looked down at her and just kind of Jokingly, not jokingly said "you have a whole host of angels protect protecting you, little one." That was it...

5/31/2025 9:11:19 AM

Thanks for sharing! I'll pray into it. I recently had a dream with [REDACTED] but in my dream she represented someone in the ministry.

Happy new year guys! It was still a great night and everyone enjoyed the video that sent messages to me about their live stream. I think it's probably gonna be important to make sure there's a dedicated individual monitoring the live stream mix so that this simple oversight don't happen. The person work in the front of the house isn't really able to do both well. I don't think you should take the video down. It was it was a little distracting but it was still good ❤️

We don't have the means to do that. We are struggling to just get [REDACTED] to display lyrics and scripture in a timely manner. We don't have volunteers who can run the sound, and we aren't going to pay for a separate contractor to do it. Especially because we cut the worship off on Sundays within 24 hours of streaming.

Hey guys I need to run this by you related to worship during the intensive... Usually I would do Friday and Saturday morning Worship. Obviously I can't play keys now, and [REDACTED] is a teacher. So he would not be available on Friday morning. Not sure if [REDACTED] might be available to play piano and sing with me? I can verify if [REDACTED] is available on the Saturday morning.

1/7/2026 1:32:31 PM

We were just discussing this. It may be best to just use worship videos this round, and revisit once you heal. We still need to see how [REDACTED] does and [REDACTED] often works mornings. We can ask [REDACTED], but I'm okay if this doesn't come together for live worship this round.

The thought of driving an hour with 90% rain and 24° weather knowing that it's gonna be ice on the freeway terrifies me. I don't have peace about making the trip. So if there's gonna be a church service, I won't be able to be there. 😞
