Hey friends, based on last Sunday's recording, there are a few things we need to perfect soundwise on the stream. We are going to have an 8 am call time and we will run a practice stream from 820 to 830, listen back and assess, so we can really nail down the balancing of vocals for the online audience. I'll have both [REDACTED] there at 8 aswell. Blessings!

Hi Daniel and I are starting to plan for next year and what we need for worship. We will be doing Wednesday Worship nights. We heard that Sheena and Edward are not interested in joining us for Wednesday worship. I'm not how this is going to work long term if our worship team is not leading Worship Nights with our church. Can we all sit down to discuss 2023 after church on Sunday?

Yes I'm open for discussing.
I did mention not being available "every" Wednesday.
Trying once a month is a better fit for my personal schedule. If more time comes available, I will update everyone. 😊

I want to practice again "awake my soul ", and "Give me Jesus", and "Run to the Father". We have practiced the first two before. But we haven't done them. Run to the father is not new, but we have not done it as a team. I would love to bring that into our worship lineup.
