Edward [REDACTED]

Someone mentioned it yesterday.
[REDACTED] is his mom.
We have all the pieces they're in the tool bag, if we can get the latch to retract we can put it back on.

She boarded the plane about 40 minutes ago, should be back just before 9. She, her sister, my sister-in-law, and our oldest daughter went to assist our oldest granddaughter move into her apartment in Colorado. She's coming back to you! 😊
