Good morning, sistas!
Couple of questions as I am preparing for the wedding...

1. Can I use the rectangular tables that we have for the reception?
2. How many are there?
3. And are there any tablecloths? 4. And if so, what color are they?
5. Can I also use the chairs? I may rent the covers just for color coordination. How many total are there?

Thank you, thank you! Love you both!
