I just got the phone call... We have been approved to move into that house that I picked after the other two were not available... It is a lovely, lovely home in the exact location we needed and within our budget! God really moved mountains for me and my children and I owe it so much to you all for praying for me through this season! Would you believe the girl that contacted me from the company after giving me the news and all of the information about how to sign the lease literally said to me, "I feel to tell you in my spirit that everything is going to be OK!" "I just burst into tears. And I told her how prophetic that was, and how grateful I was for her sharing that with me. She said "yes ma'am God is good!"

Hey friend, good afternoon! I think I'm going to need to take next Sunday off to rest my voice and get better. My symptoms are getting a little more intense. It was really supernatural that I made it through the weekend! I really thank God for that. How do you feel about letting [REDACTED] lead this coming Sunday as well as on June 4 when I am in Atlanta?

Hey there good morning. Just finished interviewing the guitar player, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He is not far from me here on the northside. Could we possibly have an audition here at my place and zoom you in to listen and meet him and possibly chat with him after that? He is available on Friday after he gets out of class at around 11:30 AM. Let me know your thoughts... By the way, he was able to tell me definitively when he met the Lord 🙌 and I think we may have been on the worship team together last year at another little church here in the north side.

Listening in via zoom is not the best. It would be better to record it to your phone and upload it. The other option would be to plug you and him into a mixer and use the mixer to push the sound through zoom. I am open to him auditioning up there and having a separate conversation with him.

[REDACTED] is FABULOUS! Gonna meet with him on Thursday for auction. He loves up north her win humble so we will meet at my house and connect you afterward. I'll make sure the audio is working this time!
I've heard him via video and am really feeling a connection with him as a musician and worshiper. He is NOT spirit-filled yet (his wife is and she works in deliverance ministry). But he is open to the spirit and flowing spontaneously.
He's older-47. Has a lot of experience and very mature people n the Lord. So far he is my first pick, with [REDACTED] as an alternate/ back up.

Hey there, PAPA DANIEL, good morning! (That's what we used to call my grandpa lol.)
Hey, just wanted to double check if I will be receiving a direct deposit today? I didn't receive one last week, assuming because I was gone. Usually it comes on Wednesday morning, but it hasn't come this morning yet. I have some things I need to plan for financially this week, so I just wanted to double check. Thank you thank you!

Hey hey good morning!
I'm so glad I got to have some snuggle time with [REDACTED] yesterday
So I've been able to raise $1100 toward my car repair. The total is $2800 (got a second quote that was almost 1/2 of the previous one).
I Can have the guys pick the car up from the current mechanic and they'll start working on it. Thankfully I have a vehicle that my best friend is lending me for the week, so I can get around while it's getting fixed 🙏

Sheena [REDACTED]

Sheena, this is really difficult for me, especially on short notice, but I have just received a new opportunity for my career. I am required to work weekends 6:30 am-5:30pmish. Unfortunately this interferes with what we have going and I will be unable to attend church due to the weekend schedule going forward.

However, when I get into the sales rep position, I will have weekends off again and will be able to come back to Bride. This was a really really difficult decision for me. I almost decided to reject the offer due to Bride, but this is the right step for my personal career and it isn't a permanent schedule.

That being said, I still plan on being there for the advance.

Even if there is no room for me on the worship team later on, I would still like to visit later on.

I hope you understand. Thank you.

Hey hey, good morning! Two things... First, if someone wanted to apply for the administration job at the church how would they go about doing that?

Second thing, i had a dream about [REDACTED]... We were having a big church function, and there were lots of people everywhere. He wandered off from you guys, and I found him and scooped him up and took him with me where I was going. I grabbed my phone to try to text you guys that I had them with me, but for some reason my device would not connect to the Internet. I kept thinking "they're going to be so worried about [REDACTED]..."

When I finally got back from wherever I had gone, I found Christian and I was like hey I'm so sorry I couldn't text you, but [REDACTED] was with me. I can't remember exactly what she said, but it was something like "oh that's OK. I figured he was safe. "

That was it. Just wanted to share in case there might be something in that. I do have prophetic dreams every now and then. ❤️✌️

Hey there!
I have been using an intake tool at the counseling center that I thought on Sunday could be helpful for the coaches to use as a pre-screening tool. If that's interesting to you I can show you what it looks like and what it includes. It has a page of consent forms that cover all the HIPPA requirements. Let me know if that's interesting. Hey hey good morning! Great meeting last night. Sorry you were not feeling good, but you pressed through!
So in thinking about setting up the new coaching platform, if you don't already have a particular solution for managing client information, I would love to share with you the two Primary website platforms that we use here at the Counseling Center to do all the things related to client scheduling, billing, records, sending forms, automated form fill outs, etc. I will bring the intake forms that we use on Sunday and I can tell you more about the websites if that would be useful.

Good morning ☀️ Forgot to ask in the previous discussion about worship night if we can push the time to 7:30? I know we chatted about it last time but I don't think we landed it. Let me know your thoughts. The band just has a hard time arriving at 6 PM for set up and Soundcheck due to traffic all over the city.

I wanted to double check with you about the offering amounts for Adam's meetings... I assumed that each meeting would be $400, But the deposit amount from Gusto today does not reflect that. Can you share with me what the actual offering amount for each meeting was? I had a number of things I needed to cover financially this week so I'm trying to figure everything out. Thanks so much!

Ok no problem, so for future reference, I consider $400 a day rate. Obviously, when you directed the advance, we gave you significantly more because of the amount of work involved in carrying that. For a meeting like Adam's, it only comes out to roughly 1 hour of worship for the day. Feel free to ask for clarity before any event, but I'm committed to sowing $400 whenever we bring you out from Woodlands for worship, including my intensives. For more labor-intensive meetings on your part that may arise in the future, we can agree to a higher rate. Blessings!!

Hi [REDACTED] thank you for your reply! I am the Executive Director and we are very excited for MJ to join us. We want to give her the musical support she deserves. Sheena is our musical director and can certainly step in. However, the more lead time the better as she has to prepare our team to play behind MJ and learn the music she plans to use. Thank you for adding [REDACTED] I will go ahead and add Sheena to the thread as well!

But something else came up with [REDACTED] that I want to discuss with you. What I can do is just send you a voice memo and let you listen to it and then get back to me whenever you have a sec. Hey hey good morning! Quick question... Can you kind of give me a ballpark figure concerning when approximately you can see us physically moving into the new building? Obviously asking so I can kind of have a timeframe in mind for building out our worship team a little more. I'm connecting with [REDACTED] now about playing with us. I'm trying to figure out if I can work her in to some Sundays right now maybe by not having an acoustic guitar a couple of times a month. Anyway, these are just thoughts rolling through my head... I definitely wanna try to work her in to be able to play during the advance. But just thinking ahead, I was curious about how long you think we would be before getting into the new building, I know you don't have an exact date... Just wondered if you had a roundabout sort of kind of timeframe.

Hey there, just some thoughts for the morning... I feel really led to start our time of worship with a very contemplative couple of minutes to give people an opportunity to "respond" to what the Lord began to do in their hearts today. Just a few moments to process with Jesus, some of the thoughts and feelings, emotions, convictions, etc.... And then will jump into the set list. Let me know if that's OK.

Good morning good morning! Wanted to give you an update on [REDACTED] ... i've met with her a few times just to get to know her, hear her story, see where she's at spiritually. She actually attended one of our choir rehearsals and jumped on the bass. I got to really see where she's at in her playing. After that rehearsal, I realized she wasn't quite ready to join the team, musically speaking. But after our meeting last Monday, she shared with me [REDACTED] She is building her foundation in Christ and is working on healing. So I suggested, and she agreed, that we take Worship team off the table for a season. In my opinion she needs, at minimum, a year before we circle back to her joining the team. That would give her a chance to solidify her walk with the Lord and [REDACTED] for a significant amount of time as well as work more on her Bass skills. She and I agreed that we would continue to meet once a month and go through the discipleship material and just touch base and pray together.

Hey!
So, I listened to Dr Laura Sanger today on The Deep End talking about Tuning frequencies in music, worship, etc. I had heard a while back about the differences between 432hz and 440hz in tuning sound. So it wasn't brand new, but she introduced info about 444hz. I took away from the podcast that 440hz is NOT what I want to stay with. Looking now into which would be the better choice overall for worship at Bride. Are you familiar with this conversation??

It's talked about a lot in certain circles. I'm really curious about why Dr. Laura suggested 444. She discussed it being possible to have more clarity spiritually at 4:44. It's not hard to do at all. It's just a decision and then everyone does it starting with the keyboard.

Good morning! ☀️ I completely forgot to pack the keyboard and the drums on Sunday (distracted by being locked out of my van!) We have a band rehearsal this weekend. I'll need to make the trip out on Friday to grab everything. Just letting you know 👍

Hey quick question... Do you guys have a date in mind yet for when we will be transitioning to the new building? I keep hearing September... I just need to know how to begin preparing the worship team for the change. And just to confirm, we are going to one service at 11 AM, correct?

[REDACTED] has some Bass Player resources that we're gonna pursue. I don't know who to talk to now about all of the administrative details about the conference like hotel rooms, etc. But I will need to make a few changes to that since I am removing [REDACTED] and also [REDACTED] from that original list of people who needed a room.

Hey good morning! ☀️
So, just to connect about Worship Night since you'll be gone...

We can do a structure like this:

- 1. Worship for 30 minutes
- 2. Scripture meditation for 15 minutes (Codi, Rinny, or someone can choose and we can sing it while one of them speak it).
- 3. Music 15 min
- 4. Rapid Fire Prayer (congregation invited) 15 min
- 5. Worship til 9.

Let me know how this sounds 👍

9/22/2025 10:22:07 AM (Delivered 9/22/2025 10:22:09 AM)

[REDACTED] won't there and often Codi has to leave early, but either Codi or Christian can read scripture for 15 min. [REDACTED] has a tendency to bail last minute on Friday nights, but I'll make sure someone is teed up!

Good morning! Just going over some details and have a question... can you share with me what your plan is for the ministry time after your message on Saturday night? Just thinking about what music to have ready after your message.

11/17/2025 8:15:28 AM (Delivered 11/17/2025 8:15:28 AM | Read 11/17/2025 8:15:36 AM)

Let's prepare to minister with "In the mighty name of Jesus" You guys will be on stage for the final part. I am essentially going to "seat the ecclesia". It's a rehearsal of Daniel 7. I don't plan to open the altar for personal ministry because of the corporate activation, but like last year, there will be worship afterwards

When I get towards the end of my message I want a background instrumental for LION. There will be a point where we have a corporate shout. As we are doing that I would like the singers to come in on the part "let the lion roar". You'll be singing while we are shouting, and move into the rest of the song. Before that, just a basic chord progression behind me. After that, I'd like the first transition to be Mighty name of Jesus. Then wherever the Lord leads.

Hey Dan good morning. Wanted to touch base with you before I reach out to [REDACTED]... I want to ask you to reconsider the salary for the musicians. Part of [REDACTED] reasoning for looking for another place to serve is that the pay was not adequate for the distance she was traveling and the amount of time that she had to be there. I do agree with her and I want to ask you to consider increasing the salary for the musicians to $300 a week. Let me know your thoughts and then I'll proceed.

11/26/2025 11:32:05 AM (Delivered 11/26/2025 11:32:06 AM | Read 11/26/2025 11:32:16 AM)

Thought about it a bit. Let's reach out for a keys player. We can do $300 and possibly a little more depending on skill level. Let's hold off on bass with [REDACTED] for the moment, and see if we can settle into the right fit on keys, since that's more of a priority.

So, [REDACTED] is familiar with some of our songs, but we need to add some prayer or something in the service to fill the 1.5 hours. We have about 6 songs that he's good with. We'll meet a little early on Wednesday so we can get him set up with the Nord. So there's no need for him to have it before then. His personal board needs to be replaced he said.

Hey! Hope you're taking advantage of a day to rest 👍
I have made the transition with the keys player. He will be with us on February 1 [REDACTED] will play on Worship night.
I was very kind to [REDACTED] simply sharing that I didn't feel he was the best fit and that I needed someone to be able to read charts and be familiar with our songs.
He took it well to my face, but I think he went behind me and talked to [REDACTED] Apparently they've known each other for 20 years. She got offended at something I shared with HIM that he told her and she wrote me a very nasty text.
Proving what I suspected...she's not someone I would want to work with again! Very ugly parts and super aggressive when she feels offended.
Anyway, we move on...
